Appointment of a member of The University of South Bohemia International Council

Dear Professor Czaplińska,

It is a great honour for me to appoint you as a member of the University of South Bohemia International Council (USB International Council). I highly appreciate you as an internationally respected expert and I will be looking forward to our future cooperation that will contribute to the development of the University of South Bohemia in České Budějovice.

The USB International Council represents an advisory body to the rector for assessing the direction and quality of the USB's educational and creative activities. The USB International Council provides opinions and recommendations in the area of the newly developed study programs and the future direction of the intended study programs at USB, comments the areas of education where USB endeavors for accreditation, or suggests procedures to possible improvements of the overall educational concept at USB. The USB International Council offers incentives to improve the organization and processes of the USB's scientific and research activities, to conceptual issues and, based on the rector's request, performs evaluation of individuals or teams proposed for grants, medals and USB awards.

Communication between the rector of USB and members of the USB International Council is via electronic mail. The meeting of the USB International Council is held at least once in five years. In that case, travel and subsistence expenses are reimbursed by the University of South Bohemia in České Budějovice.

Membership of the University of South Bohemia International Council starts on January 1st 2018 and lasts for five years.

Sincerely yours,

Tomáš Machula
