

Foreign language assistants in Spain

Polish conversation assistants in Spanish public schools

Description:

Grants aimed at university graduates or university students from the second year of their degree onwards; either Polish or with permanent residence in Poland, to work as English conversation assistants in Spanish public primary or secondary schools.

Target group:

University graduates or university students from the second year of their degree onwards; either Polish or with permanent residence in Poland.

Requirements:

Specific participation requirements for Poland:

- a) To have Polish nationality or permanent residence in Poland.
  - b) To be a university student from the second year of their degree onwards in the current academic year 2020-21
- or
- to hold a university degree.
- c) To have turned 18 years of age before January 1st 2022) and be under 60 years of age on January 1st 2023.
  - d) To not suffer from an illness or condition that makes it impossible for them to carry out their duties as a language assistant.
  - e) To have a C1 or C2 level of English. If no official certificate is available, the applicant shall undergo a short oral test in English.
  - f) To submit a signed letter of motivation.
  - g) To submit a letter of reference or report, from a teacher or employer, issued not before September 2021. The letter or report must be dated and signed.

h) To have a negative certificate of offences of a sexual nature. This certificate may be required at any stage of the process.

Assessment criteria for the selection of candidates:

- a) Academic qualifications related to the fields of education, humanities or science. (Up to 10 points).
- b) Training activities in the field of language teaching. (Up to 25 points).
- c) Participation in voluntary activities, animation, artistic education, music, dance and drama. (Up to 25 points).
- d) Level of Spanish language. (Up to 25 points).
- e) Knowledge of other languages. (Up to 5 points).
- f) Knowledge of Spanish literature, history and culture (students of the Spanish-Polish Bilingual Courses Programme can attest this by submitting their Spanish Baccalaureate Diploma). (Up to 8 points).
- g) Letter of reference from the educational institution awarding the degree. (Up to 2 points).

Number of places:

60

Endowment:

The language and culture assistants will receive a monthly allowance of 700 euros, as a subsistence and accommodation allowance, for 12 hours a week of collaboration with students. In some cases this allowance may be higher if the number of weekly hours of collaboration is increased.

Duration of the Programme:

1 October 2022 to 31 May 2023. The position may be renewed if both the candidate and the school direction agree.

Deadline for applications:

From 1 February 2022.

Until 7 April 2022 at 14:00 (UTC + 1).

Candidates from Poland should only register their application for participation through the Profex application.

All information and access to the call:

Official programme website with some information in English.

Assistance for Polish candidates:

Call or write to the Consejería de Educación of the Spanish Embassy in Poland (in English or Spanish). Telephone: +48 22 6269811. E-mail: asesoriaeducacion.pl@educacion.gob.es