

European New School of Digital Studies · European University Viadrina
Große Scharrnstr. 59 · 15230 Frankfurt (Oder) · Germany

Robert Geisler
os. Energetyk 16c/6
46-081 Dobrzen Wielki, Poland

Johanna Janotta
Head of Administration
Phone: +49 176 47660193
E-mail: janotta@europa-uni.de

Frankfurt (Oder), 03.08.2022

Notification about your application within the ENS Fellowship Program

Dear Mr. Geisler,

Thank you very much for applying for a research fellowship within the Fellowship Program Datafication in European Societies of the European New School of Digital Studies (ENS) at European University Viadrina Frankfurt (Oder). The program is sponsored with funds from the Dieter Schwarz Foundation.

The Commission for the fellowship program has carefully examined all applications and made a selection of the candidates. I am pleased to inform you that the commission has decided in favour of your application. As you continue to receive a salary from your home university during your stay at ENS, you may apply for reimbursement of your rent and travel expenses in accordance with the relevant university regulations.

The research stay will be split over the following periods of stays:

19-21.09.2022
26-28.09.2022
10-11.10.2022
24-25.10.2022
7-8.11.2022
21-22.11.2022
5-6.12.2022
19-20.12.2022
30.01-10.02.2023

You will be hosted by Prof. Dr. Jan-Hendrik Passoth at the Chair for Sociology of Technology. The activities within the fellowship will take place at the European New School of Digital Studies at European University Viadrina Frankfurt (Oder).

You will receive the details for the reimbursement procedure during your stay at European New School of Digital Studies from the program coordination. The reimbursement can either be transferred into a bank account within Germany or the European Union or paid out in cash at the box office of the European University Viadrina.

The accompanying declaration of acceptance summarizes the details of this fellowship appointment and sets out the entire agreement between you and European University Viadrina Frankfurt (Oder). Please take the time to review the attachment, and if you agree to the terms of the program please indicate your acceptance by returning a signed copy as a scan to janotta@europa-uni.de until August 10, 2022 at the latest.

In exceptional cases, if travelling to Germany is not possible or not reasonable due to the COVID-19 pandemic, you can opt for performing your research stay digitally. In this case, an additional confirmation from your host supervisor will be requested, specifying that the goals of your planned research stay can also be achieved digitally. The travel grant and childcare allowance will not apply.

By accepting the fellowship you agree to submit a project report about your stay at the European New School of Digital Studies at European University Viadrina after having completed your research stay and to also participate in an evaluation survey. I kindly ask you to submit your written project report about your research stay within a month after the end of your funding but no later than until March 10, 2023. This also applies if your research stay may exceed the funding period. Please find detailed information on the length and content of your project report in the declaration of acceptance.

In case you have any questions or seek more information on the fellowship, please do not hesitate to contact Ms Johanna Janotta (janotta@europa-uni.de, Tel. +49 176 47660193).

Yours sincerely,

Prof. Dr. Jürgen Neyer

Director of the European New School of Digital Studies

Instruction on right to appeal

An objection against this approval can be entered within one month after announcement or verbally for transcription at the European University Viadrina Frankfurt (Oder).