Global Studies

Programme type: undergraduate (first-cycle)
Study mode: full-time
Number of semesters: 6 (3 years)
Tuition fee: 7200 PLN /year

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

Global Studies students explore interdisciplinary knowledge in the field of political science, economics, sociology, culture, and modern technologies.

During their studies students will:
- gain knowledge, among others on the theory of global development, geopolitics, human rights, and public policies.
- They will take a closer look at extremely significant global problems on subjects such as the Conflicts of the modern world, food and water in the 21st century, and Urban development.
- They will learn about alterglobalist movements, international organizations, and today's trends and megatrends.
- Students will also gain the ability to work in a multinational and intercultural environment.

Chosen subjects:
- Theory Of Global Development, Social Inequalities,
- Conflicts in The Modern World,
- Trends and Megatrends in The Global World,
- Global Issues Menagement.

FUTURE CAREER PROSPECTS

By obtaining a Bachelor's Degree in Global Studies, you will gain valuable capital in the contemporary labor market:
- you will achieve your qualifications in English;
- you will gain practical skills in analyzing international issues,
- you will have the possibility of personal development in a multicultural environment.

Therefore, your professional future may be related to:
- international business
- international governmental organizations (institutions of the European Union, NATO, UN, and many others)
- non-governmental organizations working in the international environment
- public administration
- start-up sector trying its hand at the international market.

QUALIFICATION CRITERIA FOR FOREIGN CANDIDATES

In order to apply, enter the following final exam grades from the secondary school certificate:
1. English
2. Any subject of your choice.

All grades should be converted in the Polish system! Instructions can be found here.

Check the programme's website here.